Authorities Renew Intensive Search

Fears Rise For 3 Rights Workers

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP) — Federal and state officers renewed their intensive search at daybreak today for three missing civil rights workers and planned dragging operations in several bodies of waters in this east-central Mississippi area.

As fear mounted that the three workers would not be found alive, a highway patrol spokesman said searchers would check all buildings, out buildings and recent excavations.

"There is still no indication, no definite leads for us to go on," said Art Richardson, public information officer for the Mississippi Highway Patrol.

Grady Gilmore, public relations director for the patrol, said earlier: "It is hard to believe that three people could just be swallowed up without somebody hearing or seeing them."

The trio was last seen Sunday night.

The charred hulk of the station wagon they used was found by FBI agents in a swampy area near a lonely road late Tuesday.

Allen Dulles, sent to Mississippi to gather information for the White House on the missing workers, conferred at Jackson with Gov. Paul B. Johnson.

Dulles, former director of the Central Intelligence Agency, said he did not plan to come here. He told newsmen that President Johnson asked him to "come down here and talk with Gov. Johnson and get first hand his view of the problems here on law enforcement."

The governor praised Dulles, saying "men like him are here for the purpose of doing good."

He has a carte blanche anywhere in Mississippi."

The civil rights workers—Michael Schwerner, 24, and Andy Goodman, 20, both of New York and James Chaney, 22, a Negro from Meridian—were last seen Sunday night when Chaney paid a $20 fine for speeding.

They were in the Philadelphia area in central Mississippi to check into the burning of a Negro church used for civil rights rallies.

FBI agents joined in the search for the trio on Tuesday.

The Highway Patrol said more than 200 persons were questioned during a house-to-house probe Wednesday that was halted by rain and darkness.

Art Richardson, a patrol spokesman, said officers would fan out on foot today from Philadelphia to comb the entire county for clues.

Another patrol spokesman said the attempt by Negro comedian Dick Gregory and three Negro integration leaders to enter the search area delayed operations Wednesday. Later, Gregory offered $25,000 in borrowed money as a reward for the arrest and conviction of those responsible for the disappearance of the three workers. Gregory said he borrowed the money from a Chicago magazine publisher.

In Washington, some 2,000 delegates to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People convention marched around the Justice Department building in silent protest over the disappearance of the trio.

Would Work For Him, However

Scranton Sees GOP Loss If Goldwater's Nominated

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Nomination of Sen. Barry Goldwater for president would spell defeat for the Republican party this fall, says his chief rival, Gov. William W. Scranton.

"It is sound judgment that his candidacy would set up our party for a defeat of major proportions," the Pennsylvania governor told a news conference Wednesday.

"But if Sen. Goldwater is nominated, I will work for him and support him no matter whatever long odds there are against his being elected," Scranton said.

He made the statements en route from Charleston, W. Va. to Miami. In both Florida and West Virginia he sought delegate support for his campaign.

In Miami, Scranton addressed 16 Florida delegates and a meeting of the Florida Association of Broadcasters. Scranton gained no promise of support from the delegates, but got a standing ovation. Twenty-one members of the 34-vote delegation favor Goldwater. The others are uncommitted.

In his address to the broadcasters Scranton proposed that the United States organize and equip Cuban exile forces fighting to free their homeland of the Communist government of Fidel Castro.

At the news conference, Scranton said: "Since in politics almost anything can happen, it would not be impossible for Sen. Goldwater to beat (President) Johnson in November."

"But there is such a thing as playing with odds so long that only the most optimistic partisan would have anything but a glimmer of hope."

"I believe that would be the position of the party with Barry as a candidate. It is not possible to exaggerate the tremendously difficult task to get him elected."

Goldwater has more than enough delegates to capture the nomination if his support holds up through the first ballot at the San Francisco convention.

Scranton pointed his air tour today at delegates in Cleveland, Ohio, and Lansing, Mich. Ohio's 58 votes are pledged to favorite son Gov. James A. Rhodes. Forty-five of Michigan's 48 delegates are uncommitted. Goldwater has the other three.

Senate Seen Holding Key To Medicare

House Unit Shelves Program; Votes Hike For Retirees

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson's chances of getting his medical care program now hinge on the Senate—and perhaps on his ability to persuade key House members later.

The President lost round one Wednesday when the House Ways and Means Committee shelved the Social Security health program.

The committee, however, did vote for a 5 per cent increase in cash payments to Social Security retirees.

If Congress acts promptly, passing the bill in July, the October pension checks could reflect the increase.

Social Security retirement now averages $77 for an individual, with a top of $127. A wife 62 or older means an additional 50 per cent. A tax boost to pay for the increase would go into effect Jan. 1.

When members of the American Medical Association's House of Delegates meeting in San Francisco heard of the committee's decision against the plan they stood up and cheered.

The AMA has been one of the strongest and most vocal opponents of the medical care plan and its president, Dr. Thomas A. Welch, said, "We are confident that this decision is in keeping with the attitude of the majority of the American people."

Rep. Cecil R. King, D-Calif., co-author of the health plan, seized the initiative in shelving it when it was obvious that a vote would mean defeat.

Midland Man Waives Gun Charge Hearing

Clifford Edwards, 356 Ohio Ave., Midland, charged with assault with intent to kill, waived a preliminary hearing Wednesday before Squire Paul McGeehan and was held for the Beaver County Grand Jury in September.

Edwards was freed earlier on wounding of a neighbor, John E. Price, during an argument June 9 in Midland.

Price was confined three days in City Hospital with gunshot wounds of the left side of the face.

Float Deadline Extended

Midland's July 4th Fete Includes Varied Program

Plans for Midland's annual July 4th celebration are nearing completion and already the program indicates a wide variety of entertainment for the Independence Day event, usually one of the largest in the Tri-State Area.

Mayor Eli Corak is general chairman and the theme for this year's celebration is "Liberty and Justice for All."

Charles P. Henderson, program chairman, said the celebration will include: the morning parade, afternoon program of variety acts and concerts, the evening drum and bugle corps competition, aerial fireworks and a street dance.

The committee has urged organizations to send in their parade entries. The deadline of Saturday has been extended until the next meeting of the committee, Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. at the Borough Building.

Entry forms may be picked up at the police station, Chamber of Commerce Office and Midland News Office. All entries must be returned to the police station. Parade floats must be on the theme of the celebration. There will be eight prizes ranging from $100 to $30 for the best adult floats, and five prizes ranging from $75 to $10 for the best youth floats.

Steve Trbovich of Midland, finance chairman, urged residents, businesses, and organizations to get behind the current solicitation for funds that finance the celebration. He said fund totals are encouraging, but all expected funds are not in yet. He said contributions by Crucible employees have been good.

The celebration is financed by $1 donations by which the Citizens Committee plans a day's entertainment for old and young alike.

The morning parade is expected to have about 18 marching bands, including 10 area high school bands, five national drum and bugle corps and three professional bands.

High school bands expected include Midland, Beaver Falls, Monaca, Beaver Local, Ambridge, East Liverpool, Western Beaver, New Brighton, South Side and Northwestern. Drum and bugle corps will be the Pittsburgh Rockets, Westmore-

Man Charged Costs On Late Tax Payment

A man who paid his 1963 city income tax, but only after charges had been filed against him, was ordered to pay $7.50 court costs when he appeared today before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on an affidavit signed by Tax Commissioner D. G. Wilkinson.

The defendant was William Adams, 36, of 507 Elm St., for whom a bench warrant was issued after he failed to appear for a scheduled hearing Wednesday.

Adams also was accused of failure to file an estimate of his 1964 earnings. The deadline for both reports was April 15. Adams, a construction worker, pleaded not guilty to failure to pay the 1963 tax and guilty on the charge of not making a 1964 estimate.

Explaining his failure to appear yesterday, Adams told the judge he was at work. He said his wife phoned "someone — I don't know who — and was told I would have to pay the

President Informs Aides To 'Beef Up' Mission In Saigon

Chief Takes New Look At Asian Crisis

Declares Time Has Come For U.S. To Make Major Effort

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has passed the word to aides that along with the assignment of his new top command team to South Viet Nam, he wants the whole U.S. mission in Saigon beefed up as much as possible.

In taking a new look at the Southeast Asian crisis because of the resignation of Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, Johnson is said to have determined that the time has come for the United States to make a major effort, as some officials phrase it, "to turn the war around."

Some top authorities believe the firm leadership of South Vietnamese president, Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, is beginning to show results, that improved U.S. techniques in training South Vietnamese forces is also showing results and that the ill effects in disorder and damaged morale of the political upheavals of last fall and winter are beginning to be overcome.

President Johnson, it is understood, had expected that Lodge, the kingpin of the U.S. organization and effort in South Viet Nam, would remain on the job until August. But Lodge decided for what he has called purely personal reasons that he had to leave almost at once. He said he wanted to help Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton in his effort to win the GOP presidential nomination. Johnson announced Tuesday the acceptance of the resignation which Lodge submitted last Friday.

At the same time, and according to a principle that had previously been adopted that there should be no gap between

Hancock Man Given Stay To File Appeal

NEW CUMBERLAND — Robert M. Young, 34, convicted June 11 of first degree murder of a neighbor, was sentenced to life imprisonment in the state penitentiary at Moundsville Wednesday by Judge James G. McClure in Hancock County Circuit Court.

Sentencing followed Judge McClure's denial of a motion for a new trial for Young but his counsel, Atty. Frank A. Pietranton, received a stay of sentence for 90 days to allow time for an appeal to the West Virginia Supreme Court.

Pietranton then requested that Young be released on bond pending the appeal but this was rejected by Judge McClure after Prosecuting Atty. Floyd R. Tarr protested.

Young was convicted of shooting George Merkich. The jury of 10 men and two women recommended mercy, sparing Young the death penalty.

Merkich was shot Aug. 3, 1963, while standing in the doorway of his rural home. Prosecutor Tarr produced evidence in the trial indicating a "romance" between Mrs. Young and Merkich was the motive.

Rig Crushes Parked Cars

A tractor-trailer rig overturned on Route 30 near the Club Paddock back of Chester Wednesday at 10:30 p. m., demolishing two parked cars Hancock County sheriff's deputies reported.

The cab of the overturned rig crushed one car and the second was flattened beneath the rear section of the bed of the trailer, which was carrying a cargo of steel pipe. Spectators are shown examining the wreckage.

An unidentified Oldsmobile sedan was backing out of the club parking lot on to Route 30 just as the truck driven by Russell Beck, of Bridge-water appeared over the brow of the hill, traveling west from Pittsburgh. The unknown driver continued on his way.

Beck turned the rig to the right and swerved into the parking lot to miss the auto. The truck smashed several poles and ripped up blacktopping in the lot before it upset.

The trailer of the rig then overturned on the car of Rudy

Water Main Contract Let For Midland

The Midland Municipal Authority Wednesday night awarded a contract for $26,011 to the George Studen Co. of Midland to lay 2,900 feet of 12-inch pipe to extend water service from the Midland Heights storage tanks to the Ohioville Borough line.

Two other bids were received with each bidding on the 12-inch line and a 10-inch line. The bid for the 12-inch main was selected on the recommendation of Michael Baker, Jr., Inc., consulting engineer. Construction is scheduled to get under way shortly.

The authority also signed a new labor contract with Local 437, Utility Workers, affecting eight hourly workers at the water plant and three recently accepted into the local, and who are employed at the sewage disposal plant.

The contract calls for pay increases of 8½ cents per hour retroactive to last October when the old contract expired, and for 9 cents per hour effective July 1. The new contract expires in 1966.

The engineering firm reported construction of the water plant addition is about 80 per cent completed. Dr. Z. A. N. Sigal, chairman, presided. Next regular meeting will be July 15.

Johnson Sets New Talk On Cyprus Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson confers again today with Greek Prime Minister George Papandreu in the second round of his efforts to keep Greece and Turkey from drifting into war over their Cyprus dispute.

Johnson is reported to feel his efforts may be succeeding. Aides said he was encouraged by his previous two days of conferences, which ended Tuesday, with the other side in the struggle—Turkish Prime Minister Ismet Inonu.

However, after arriving, the Greek delegation let it be known that Greece was not too happy with the communique Johnson and Inonu had issued which referred to "the present binding effects of existing treaties."

This was taken as a reference to the 1960 Cyprus Treaty giving Turkey, as well as Greece and Great Britain, the right to intervene with troops.

Greece refuses to recognize this right to intervene and has warned it would consider any Turkish landing on Cyprus to be an act of aggression.

Johnson reportedly urged a meeting between Papandreu and Inonu. But Inonu, in New York Wednesday for a meeting with U.N. Secretary-General U. Thant, told reporters through an aide that "there will be no meeting."

court costs if I had already paid the city tax."

Since Wilkinson was not available, the tax office's side of the case was presented by Mrs. Betty Allison, an employee.

Adams told the court he paid the first installment on his 1963 tax two weeks ago. He conceded the payment was made after he was served with a summons directing him to appear in court. He said he paid the balance of the tax yesterday, as he had arranged to do.

Explaining the failure to file a 1964 estimate, he said he has been unemployed most of this year and it would be impossible for him to determine how much he will make. The judge responded an estimate "of only $1" would comply with the law.

The judge also lectured Adams on disrespect for the court by his failure to appear as ordered.

"Regardless of what you think of the occupant of the bench, you must have respect for the court itself," he said.

The judge fined Adams $10 and costs, but suspended the fine on payment of the costs.

Lodge and his successor, Johnson announced an unprecedented combination of talents and experience would be sent into the U.S. Embassy at Saigon—with Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, leaving the chairmanship of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, to become ambassador, and Deputy Undersecretary of State U. Alexis Johnson to become deputy ambassador.

Already on the scene was Lt. Gen. William C. Westmoreland, who a few days earlier had taken over as chief of U.S. military forces from Gen. Paul D. Harkins.

Well-informed officials now say that a new and probably "big name" director of U.S. economic assistance also will be sent to Saigon on top of a routine change of personnel which was already scheduled.

Joseph L. Brent, director of the aid mission, is being replaced by Stuart H. Van Dyke, formerly a director in Turkey. Both men are long experienced in foreign aid operations overseas and both rank high in their agency, according to officials here.

But what the Johnson administration is now said to be seeking is a kind of super staff of high powered talent with brains and reputation in combination to produce outstanding results and the maximum possible improvement in the situation.

GOP presidential nomination, invited the Pennsylvania governor to visit their downtown headquarters today.

The late-afternoon visit to party and ward leaders was the last stop on Scranton's busy schedule, which led off with a noon speech and a luncheon at the Sheraton-Cleveland Hotel.

Ohio's 58 delegates to the Republican National Convention were invited to the luncheon, but many reportedly have declined the offer.

Ohio Gov. James A. Rhodes and state GOP chairman Ray C. Bliss also have said they would not be able to make it to Cleveland for Scranton's visit.

The Ohio delegation to the party's national convention next month in San Francisco are committed to Gov. Rhodes as favorite son for the first ballot. Supporters of Sen. Barry Goldwater for the GOP nomination say the senator should get 32 to 35 Ohio votes if a second ballot is needed.

Rep. John Ashbrook gave that estimate when the Ohio delegation caucused Monday in Columbus and he added that Scranton probably would get the rest.

Scranton, accompanied by his wife, Mary, and three of their four children, comes here from Florida where he was on a similar mission, seeking delegate support. From here he heads for Lansing, Mich.

The Kosanovich auto was slammed into a car owned by the International Paper Co. of Youngwood, Pa., knocking it into the wall of the club. Damage to this auto was estimated by sheriff's deputies at $300.

The Novak auto was knocked into a car owned by Victoria A. Deluca. The unidentified driver of the Deluca auto received a minor whip-lash injury of the neck but declined treatment. Damage was estimated at $300 to the Deluca auto.

The truck caught fire, but was put out by a bystander who used a small extinguisher. The truck is owned by the Aero Trucking Co. and the trailer by the Dart Trucking Co. of Weirton. Damage to the rig was not known.

Deputies said the cargo of 4-inch pipe was well tied down, which prevented what might have been further damage or injuries.

Columbus Boy, 10, Drowns In Lake Hope

MCARTHUR, Ohio (AP) — A summer outing has taken the life of a Columbus boy at Lake Hope in eastern Vinton County.

The boy, Harry Roy Arthur, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Arthur drowned Wednesday near the lake spillway.

Sheriff Harold Steele said a Columbus neighbor, Walter Thompson, 9, was found unconscious in about 12 feet of water. Lake Hope lifeguard Dick Curry of Athens pulled him from the water and applied mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. Curry could not reach Arthur in time. A McArthur physician treated young Thompson and he was released.

Saxbe Appeals For Session On Redistricting

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Republican nominees for the General Assembly have been told that an early special session of the legislature should deal with reapportionment of the House.

Atty. Gen. William Saxbe issued an appeal for such a session at a luncheon meeting Wednesday. The meeting was called to map strategy for the November election campaign.

Saxbe said the special session should be called before the election so amendment proposals could be placed before the voters.

After the election, lawmakers could return to implement the proposals, the state's No. 1 legal officer explained. He said U. S. Supreme Court decisions calling for congressional and legislative representation on the basis of equal population make Ohio action desirable.

Gov. James A. Rhodes, the only person who can bring the legislature into special session, heard Saxbe's proposal but showed no outward enthusiasm.

Legislative leaders, including House Speaker Roger Cloud, R-Logan, and Senate majority leader C. Stanley Mechem, R-

Athens, expressed opposition. They took the position that there is no need for haste since the Supreme Court indicated necessary changes could be made as soon as practicable.

Rattling A Saber In Saigon

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor's assignment as U.S. ambassador to South Viet Nam further complicates efforts to assess this country's position in troubled Southeast Asia.

President Johnson's selection of the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff to succeed Henry Cabot Lodge in a diplomatic role has been greeted with a mixture of applause, apprehension and a sheer puzzlement.

The command shakeup has been interpreted by many as giving credence to mounting speculation that the U.S. is ready to adopt a hard-nosed attitude in Southeast Asia even to the point of risking war with Red China.

THIS interpretation has drawn applause from those who believe the U.S. has been made the butt of a ghastly international joke in being forced to continue a deteriorating and costly war of containment in South Viet Nam.

At the same time, it has evoked apprehension from those who believe Gen. Taylor's mission to Saigon is to carry the war into North Viet Nam, a move which almost certainly would bring the U.S. in to head-to-head involvement with the Red Chinese.

Others who take a less emotional and possibly a more correct view of the situation believe the assignment of a top military man to head our embassy is President Johnson's way of rattling a saber he is neither willing nor prepared to use.

THERE is every reason to believe the President regards South Viet Nam as the political Achilles heel that could jinx his plans for future occupancy of the White House. South Viet Nam is an issue in the presidential campaign and further deterioration of the U.S. position there with the threat of outright retreat or defeat could hurt Johnson seriously.

Gen. Taylor's presence in Saigon undoubtedly will strengthen the military command. But it seems doubtful the President would be willing, at this point, to go beyond the muscle-flexing stage in an effort to show the Viet Cong we are prepared to play for keeps.

No Sale, Nikita

As communism's chief salesman, Soviet Premier Khrushchev is ringing up a significant flop on his Scandinavian tour. He must be getting the message by now that what he has to offer, Scandinavia doesn't need.

And Khrushchev is fooling no one but himself if he believes he can sway Sweden from its Western-oriented neutralist policy any more than he swayed Denmark on the first stop of the three-week tour.

SWEDEN has reason to give Khrushchev the cold shoulder. The country has come to know him as the bully of the Baltic who has shown open contempt for Sweden's right in the international waters.

Swedish and Danish protests over Soviet seizure of their fishing boats have fallen on characteristically indifferent ears. And the Soviets have been less than lucid about the fate of Swedish diplomat Raoul Wallenberg who was arrested by Soviet troops in Hungary nearly 20 years ago.

Little wonder that Sweden's official reception to Khrushchev was bland to the point of being chilly and that the unofficial reception was so contemptuous that extreme security measures were invoked.

On the whole, Swedish statements have been inclined to sidestep the tension among the great powers. But they have not been indifferent to the logic of events.

KHRUSHCHEV knows Sweden could be in a strong position should a showdown ever develop between that country and the Soviet Union and he would like to warm up their relationship. Sweden is not a prisoner of its geography. With direct access to the Baltic and Atlantic, it could be defended easily by Western maritime powers.

Khrushchev probably is shrewd enough to know, too, that his Scandinavian tour is turning into a no-sale expedition.

If he were more shrewd, he might even open his eyes and take some lessons from a country whose brand of peaceful coexistence is not much different from Russia's except that it has kept Sweden out of active involvement in world conflict.

"green up" the former spoil banks, the stripped area takes on the look of virgin timberland—every camper and angler's heaven.

Ohio Power has gone still further. In cooperation with the Ohio Department of Natural Resources' Division of Wildlife, the company has opened certain areas of the reclaimed territory—most recently one in Morgan County—to the outdoorsman.

ONE HUNDRED lakes and ponds lie within the strip mine area and many have been stocked with fish. Crushed limestone and gravel roads have been established and shelter houses, picnic tables, toilet and trash facilities and fireplaces have been provided. Fishing and camping permits are available free from Ohio Power and the Division of Wildlife.

The demand created by shorter work weeks and longer vacations has exceeded the capacity of existing recreation facilities. Ohio Power's reclamation program points the way to a solution.

As Gov. Rhodes said of the Morgan County development:

"This campsite which Ohio Power has developed is an excellent example of what can be done to provide recreation facilities for the public through a responsible reclamation program."

northern Europe. Here was evidence to show that there must have been a land bridge where today there is only Arctic Ocean 1,800 feet deep. But that didn't strain the scientists' theories.

What did was the extension of the range of dinosaurs in the Cretaceous period northwards by a full 25 degrees.

The paleontologists must assume that dinosaurs, like modern reptiles, don't keep a constant artificial temperature as mammals and birds do. Their temperatures fluctuate with that of the surrounding air. Sub-zero temperatures would freeze them into gigantic pieces of ice, and they were far too big to burrow into the ground for shelter.

All of this, says Dr. Colbert, leads to the assumption that Arctic temperatures 120 million years ago must have been similar to those of the tropics today.

But such temperatures immediately eliminate the polar ice caps, and indicates that almost uniform temperatures prevailed on earth since the Cretaceous dinosaurs have been found in such diverse areas of the globe.

There is, of course, another explanation. If, as some geologists believe, the land masses on earth have been shifting their positions, carried slowly along on eddies of the fluid lower crust and mantle, then Spitsbergen Island might once have been near the equator and simply migrated north over the millennia.

Even some theories that the magnetic—hence the earth's axis—poles have changed over the eons doesn't help to explain Iguanodon's unexpected presence in the Arctic.

That warm globe so long ago leaves the geologists, astronomers and physicists with vast new areas for speculation.

Dinosaur Mystery

By Joseph R. Hixson

For scientists, a dinosaur in the Arctic can be as bad as a bull in a china shop. He may knock over shelves loaded with cherished convictions, start heated arguments, and arouse incredulity among those who hear of the event second hand.

The 30-inch footprints of a dinosaur found on the Arctic island of Spitsbergen in 1960 are still rolling the geological pond, according to Dr. Edwin H. Gilbert, curator and head of vertebrate paleontology at the American Museum of Natural History at New York.

The problem is simply stated but not easily answered. If there were dinosaurs half-way between the northern tip of Norway and the North Pole 120 million years ago, was the whole earth warmer or wasn't Spitsbergen then within the Arctic Circle? Or what?

Truman Twill is on Vacation

Whatever the explanation, some tenaciously held geo-physical notions have to be upset, Dr. Colbert wrote in a recent issue of National History, the museum's magazine.

But back to the tracks. They were spotted late on an August afternoon by members of a team of geologists on a field trip sponsored by the University of Oslo, Norway.

There were no claw marks in the stone, so the geologists knew immediately that their pre-historic specimen was a plant-eater. A member of the expedition, Dr. Albert F. Lapparent of Paris, eventually concluded that the tracks had been made by a 40-foot-long, 16-foot-high monster called Iguanodon.

That one, says Dr. Colbert, has been familiar to fossil-finders in England and

Court Ruling May Swell Senate

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Maybe if the ruling by the Supreme Court of the United States—providing for "one person, one vote"—is applied to the federal government, the Senate of the United States some day may be composed of 624 senators. The Supreme Court says that population must be the basis David Lawrence for the apportionment of state legislatures, but defends the present imbalance in the national Congress as "traditional."

Yet traditions aren't always maintained and the Supreme Court in many decisions has frequently taken the liberty of adjusting them to "the spirit of the times."

Applying the concept of "one person, one vote" it would be relatively easy for the Supreme Court to rewrite Article I of the Constitution, which provides for two senators for each state. The language could be interpreted by the high court to mean that, while the constitution intended each state to have not less than two senators, this doesn't prevent a state from having more senators, especially if population is taken as the yardstick.

UNDER THE 1960 census, there is an average of about 300,000 population in the four least populous states—Alaska, Vermont, Wyoming and Nevada. If one additional senator is granted in all the other states for above the initial 300,000, there would be a total of 624 senators.

A simple majority of the Senate would then be controlled by 313 votes, which could come from only 10 states—namely, New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, Nevada, Texas, California and Pennsylvania. A two-thirds vote of a Senate made up in this way could be obtained by the votes of only 18 states.

The principle back of such an imbalance is recognized by the Supreme Court in its recent ruling on how the districts in the various state legislatures shall be composed.

The court's theory is that population was the only basis on which the representative system was inaugurated. It's difficult to see, however, how the Supreme Court can continue to apply the rule to state legislatures without some day feeling obliged to do the same with respect to Congress.

The court has relied on the doctrine that citizens must have "equal protection of the laws," and that the apportionment must be on the basis of the actual number of voters so that vote is made effective.

The court went on to say, in connection with state apportionments, that it could "perceive no constitutional difference, with respect to the geographical distribution of state legislative representation, between the two houses of a bicameral state legislature."

IT ADDED that the concept of a two-house system is not rendered meaningless because population is used as the predominant basis of representation. The court added:

"Different constituencies can be represented in the two houses. One body could be composed of single-member districts while the other could have at least some multimember districts."

This suggestion could just as readily be applied to Congress. The House could continue to have more members and the Senate could be composed of either 624 members or even more, depending upon what basic unit of population would be considered adequate for each state.

The whole emphasis in the latest Supreme Court ruling is on numbers. If a state, for example, attempted to limit the number of voters on the basis of intelligence qualifications, the argument would be raised that this is a form of discrimination. Nowhere in the recent Supreme Court opinion is there any recognition of the fact that, although the population has grown, this doesn't necessarily mean that the number of citizens with sufficient knowledge to vote intelligently on public questions has been correspondingly increased.

Members of Congress are beginning to hear from back home murmurs of real discontent over the recent Supreme Court decisions which dictate to the states of the Union how they shall apportion representation in both houses of their respective state legislatures.

Apparently people in the farm and rural sections are afraid that domination by the cities may prove injurious to their properties and that legislation beneficial to them which has hitherto been passed by the states will be discarded if the state legislatures are entirely rebuilt with another system of representation. It's feared also that the country will be governed by the political machines of a few big cities.

Sen. Dirksen, Republican leader, has already said publicly that a constitutional amendment may be necessary to clarify the limits of the Supreme Court's ruling.

Reds To Learn Of Negro Gains In U.S.

By VICTOR RIESEL
In an austere international conference room of one of Geneva's old League of Nations "palaces" this summer an American Negro leader, Whitney Young, will take the podium and face an unusual gathering of world scholars.

Among the intellectuals will be those from the Soviet Union, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia and India. He will not be defiant. Neither will he defer. He will speak frankly of the bitter racial battle back home, but he will warn—and advise—against the use of this conflict as a propaganda weapon to beat down the U.S. image abroad.

Whitney Young Jr., head of the National Urban League, whose militancy is second to none in the leadership of his people, will speak bluntly of the tremendous Negro gains in the U.S. He will say that he would rather live in this land and make his fight here than anywhere else in the world.

SINCE YOUNG will be talking to scholars brought together by the American Foundation on Automation and Employment, Inc., headed by industrialist and world crusader John I. Snyder Jr., he will provide the specific grist for their mills—some startling statistics which prove the Negro in America is better off than billions of people elsewhere.

Young will point out that the total income of American Negroes in 1963 after taxes was $21.9 billion. As he faces such socialist intellectuals as Poland's Prof. Andrzej Salewski, who is scheduled to talk on the influence of automation on top level management in Poland, Young will talk of Negro housing in America.

By 1960, U.S. Negroes owned,

1974 million homes. And the vast percentages of these are in non-farm areas. Since this figure is four years old, conservative estimates now put it at some half a million homes higher than in '60. Tens of thousands of these are worth over $35,000, and many of the latter are in Southern states.

AS FOR AUTOMOBILES, the total Negro population of some 18 million now owns 2278 million cars.

Employment? During the past year 8.1 million Negroes worked. This means that 76 per cent of all Negro males were at work compared with 78 per cent of white males. No one doubts that the white income was higher in general but not in all businesses and industries.

As of 1962 the average income of all Negro workers was $3,123 a year. However, the family unit income in non-farm areas has risen to an average of $5,810 where both the husband and wife work.

In the big industrial areas the wage is higher. Pay in these sectors runs even higher than that of executives in England and continental Europe. The General Motors Corp., for example, reports that it employs more than 44,000 non-whites who average more than $6,000 annually in wages and another $1,000 in fringe benefits.

IN SPEAKING of Negro income, it is generally overlooked that the average wage of all factory workers has topped $100 a week. This applies to Negroes as well as white workers in the mass industries such as auto, rubber, steel, and metal production.

Since 1.5 million Negroes are members of the AFL-CIO and tens of thousands belong to independent unions such as the Mine Workers and the Teamsters, they automatically get the same wage hikes and fringe benefits as other workers.

And then there is federal, state and municipal employment. The number of non-whites in these jobs sprang from 214,000 in 1940 to more than a million in 1962. Such employment ranges from blue-collar jobs to foreign ambassadorships and Cabinet level positions.

In 1962 the increase in Negro employment in such civil service fields was over 300 per cent more than that of the whites.

All these statistics are now on Whitney Young's desk as he prepares to go to the dramatic conference which opens in the Swiss city on July 20. And nowhere could such blunt talk be more effectively made than at this parley of the International Institute for Labor Studies.

THE CONFERENCE is the brainchild of John Snyder, head of U.S. Industries, Inc., a firm which produces automatic machinery. There is compassion in this man. Some years ago he began studying the impact of automation and decided to put a tax on each of the machines his firm sold. With the proceeds of this self-imposed tax Snyder launched and financed the American Foundation on Automation and Employment, Inc., which soon had a counterpart in the United Kingdom.

Now for the first time scholars from the world over will meet to discuss "Employment Problems of Automation and of those scholars, especially from behind the Iron Curtain, will for the first time get a balanced picture of our land.

The Enemy Within

By Beverly Deepe

SAIGON
In a small hamlet not far from the 17th Parallel and North Viet Nam, a Roman Catholic priest explained to a Western visitor: "A year ago we used to denounce every Communist tax collector that came near our village. Now we have to talk to their secret agents."

In South Viet Nam's quiet northern province of Quang Tri, peasants were told to elect councils in the 400 strategic hamlets the government had established. American policy makers presumed these elections would provide democracy at the grass roots level and entice the villagers to support the government. But in 100 of the 400 hamlets, Viet Cong agents were elected as hamlet chiefs.

The Communists have up to 15 agents in each of South Viet Nam's 2,000-plus villages which are clusters of hamlets, up to 40 in each of 250 districts and up to 400 in each of 43 provincial capitals.

THESE AGENTS, mostly operating in their native areas, are distinct from other left-wing sympathizers making up the National Liberation Front of South Viet Nam, and from the armed Viet Cong guerrillas who terrorize, propagandize and attack government positions.

"Political subversion is a key element in any Communist insurgency apparatus," a high-ranking U.S. officer explained. "In Communist party tactics, if they have to cell in a hamlet today, they'll get one there tomorrow—or else try to." More than 200 secret cells are believed to operate in small, prosperous Gia Dinh province, which takes in the suburbs of Saigon.

An unknown number presumably operate in Saigon itself, where almost every businessman—from small shopkeepers to factory owners—regularly pay taxes to go-betweeners working for the Viet Cong.

No commercial group is left untouched—including Vietnamese generals who pay taxes for their rice land or rubber plantations in the provinces. French plantation owners are regular contributors; even a some U.S. installations in the provinces have been constructed by indirectly paying taxes to the Viet Cong.

Vietnamese construction firms doing American contract work pay the taxes—to make sure the buildings are not blown up before they are completed. The taxes become an additional cost to be paid by the U.S. government. Viet Cong coolies are often used for the construction work.

Vietnamese workers for American-owned firms regularly pay taxes to the Viet Cong—notably truck drivers going through Communist-held areas to supply fuel for American jeeps and helicopters in the provinces.

OTHER BUSINESSMEN who are not necessarily Viet Cong sympathizers happily assist the Viet Cong in black-marketeering or smuggling for profit. Drug store clerks sell them unlimited quantities of medicines. Many of the Viet Cong supplies are brought to South Viet Nam by Chinese businessmen living in Cambodia.

In the last three years, in Cambodia, for example, the tonnage of potassium chloride—used in manufacturing matches—increased 100 per cent, but Cambodian match production increased only one per cent. The remainder was shipped via Chinese businessmen to South Viet Nam, where the Viet Cong used it to produce gunpowder, munitions and mines.

Another important area is the black-marketeering of South Vietnamese piastres. In 1963 Hanoi agents in Hong Kong bought up 20 million piastres ($300,000) a month and then smuggled them into South Viet Nam to pay their local bills.

"In a guerrilla situation, it is only normal that everyone pays taxes to the Viet Cong," a high-ranking Vietnamese officer explained. It has long been assumed that the Viet Cong held much of the countryside while the government held the urban centers. But now, Vietnamese officers concede, "the Viet Cong are in the towns, too, but we just don't see them. They're invisible there."

The proposal also must be approved by the federal Power Commission and the Securities and Exchange Commission.

2 Obstacles May Block
FTC Rule On Cigarettes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress and federal court suits are the two likely obstacles to implementation of a new Federal Trade Commission rule requiring the tobacco industry to label cigarettes as health hazards.

The extent of the delay may be detailed today when representatives of the tobacco industry testify before the House Commerce Committee.

Paul Rand Dixon, chairman of the FTC, told the committee he hopes the industry will comply voluntarily, but he added: "They can take this rule to the nearest court and ask for a review. I'm satisfied this will happen."

Later, Sen. B. Everett Jordan, a Democrat from tobacco-producing North Carolina, said: "I have been in touch with leaders and representatives of growers, warehousemen and manufacturers and these groups have already agreed to take the matter to the courts immediately."

And Albert G. Clay, president of the Burley Auction Warehouse Association, questioned the commission's authority to enforce the ruling. He said he thinks the manufacturers will take steps immediately to challenge it.

Dixon estimated that if the industry goes to court it will take four years of litigation before the rule can go into effect.

The FTC, in the rule announced by Dixon Wednesday requires all cigarette manufacturers to label their products by Jan. 1 with a warning "that cigarette smoking is dangerous to health and may cause death from cancer and other diseases."

The commission set a July 1, 1965, deadline for this warning label to be included in all advertising, though it said it would postpone this deadline if the industry could convince the commission that it had changed its advertising in such a way to make the requirement unnecessary.

The announcement was reflected at once in the stock market. While the New York Stock Exchange list was scoring its best advance in a month, prices of major tobacco stocks slipped 75 cents to $1.50.

Clue Abandoned
In Mystery Of Woman's Body

TROY, Ohio (AP)—One clue in the mystery of a woman's dismembered body apparently has been abandoned.

Miami County Sheriff Chester Paulus had said Wednesday that parts of the body found in a travel pit and a canal at nearby Tipp City seemed to fit the description of a 30-year-old woman who has been missing for three months.

But a short while later Paulus said further investigation made that possibility doubtful.

Crews resumed dragging the canal Wednesday for the one remaining part of the body—a leg—still missing and further clues.

The autopsy on the body of the woman, believed to be between 30 and 40 years old, continued at the Montgomery County morgue in Dayton.

The mystery began June 8 when an arm was hooked by a fisherman in the gravel pit. Since then the other arm, the torso, a leg and head have been recovered.

Stockholm Like Armed Camp

Mr. K Restless, Annoyed
At Swedish Security Wall

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Premier Khrushchev is getting restless and annoyed over the colossal security wall the Swedish police have put around him.

With thousands of patrolmen bristling with sabers and pistols, and hundreds of detectives in every guise from cook to charwoman, Stockholm has been like an armed camp since the Soviet leader arrived three days ago.

A Soviet source said Khrushchev is beginning to resent the massive security curtain keeping him from contact with the Swedish people.

His impatience was demonstrated during a visit to the shipbuilding center of Goteborg Wednesday. When a policeman thrust out an arm to guide him along his route, Khrushchev struck down the arm and gave him a black look.

No unauthorized person is allowed anywhere near the man from the Kremlin, and even accredited officials are sometimes turned away. Five thousand policemen and two companies of army commandos are everywhere—holding up traffic, blocking sidewalks, peering from rooftops, searching passersby, fussing through kitchens.

Expressen, Scandinavia's biggest newspaper, complained on Khrushchev's behalf: "We are astonished at all these police, and so must Khrushchev be. In the United States he traveled in an open car, as he did in France and also in Egypt."

Another paper called Khrushchev a "prisoner of the Swedish security police."

But the Swedish government is taking no chance of any harm coming to Khrushchev. Thousands of embittered refugees from behind the Iron Curtain live in Sweden.

At a banquet for Khrushchev in Stockholm Tuesday night, 14 detectives ate with the guests at strategically placed tables. Another 100 police surrounded the building and a dozen more patrolled the wine cellars.

Waitresses had to go through two police checks.

Swiss chef Werner Voegeli, who prepared the menu for a luncheon at the royal palace, reported with some indignation that he and eight waitresses were subjected to medical tests to insure that they had no communicable disease.

Paula L. Rossi Becomes Bride Of Robert Delposen

Silver and crystal rosary beads, the gift of the bridegroom, were arranged in the cascade bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis carried by Miss Paula L. Rossi when she became the bride of Robert W. Delposen Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church of Wellsville.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Rossi, 206 5th St., Wellsville, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gene Delposen, 706 Diamond St., Wellsville.

Fr. Gerald X. Curran, pastor, officiated for the double-ring ceremony before an altar banked with white flowers, palms and ferns. Satin bows marked the family pews. Jack Stewart was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk taffeta and Alencon lace. A scoop neckline and long, pointed sleeves highlighted the fitted bodice. Pearls and crystals formed the lace accents.

The skirt was designed with a bustle bow and self roses and extended into a full chapel sweep. Her bouffant veil of silk illusion was held in place by a double crown of lace, pearl and crystal leaf motifs. In observing the traditions, she carried a white lace handkerchief made by Mrs. Robert Logan.

Miss Janice DiLoretto was maid of honor and appeared in a floor-length gown of shell pink chiffon, over silk taffeta, fashioned with a bateau neckline, elbow-length sleeves and a controlled skirt with streamers accenting the back waist. Cabbage roses and a butterfly veil formed her matching headpiece.

Bridesmaids, wearing gowns styled identically, were Mrs. Melanie Anderson, sister of the bride, in yellow; Miss Shirley Delposen, the bridegroom's sister, in cornflower blue; Miss Virginia Leone, peach; Miss Penny Weekley, squala, and Miss Edith Ann Trainer, sea mist green.

They used white accessories and carried cascade bouquets of white carnations tied with streamers to match their dresses.

Richard Gray served as best man. Ushers were Kenneth Delposen and James Delposen, brothers of the bridegroom, Ed Bauer, William Reed and Robert Kiggins.

The mother of the bride chose a dress of pink crepe accented with a white lace jacket and the

2 Groups To Discuss School Sites Monday

The City Planning Commission and the Board of Education will meet Monday night at 7:30 in Mayor Merrill D. Hall's office to discuss a proposal that the school board await recommendations from a professional planning organization hired by the city before selecting sites for a senior high school and three elementary structures proposed in a building program.

The Planning Commission decided at a meeting June 16 to suggest that the Board of Education await—if possible—recommendations from Carroll V. Hill Associates of Pittsburgh and Columbus, the concern employed to draw up a "master plan" for the city.

Hill indicated he could prepare recommendations in advance of a special election the school board expects to slate this fall on a $3,334,000 bond issue to finance the building program.

Teaching Figure Dies

MELO PARK, Calif. (AP)—Dr. Lyman Leroy Standley, 79, nationally known authority on audio-visual teaching, died Tuesday.

Unhappy 'Teen' Marriages High On Problem List

DAVIS, Calif. (AP)—Unhappy teen-age marriages are rapidly becoming one of the nation's major social problems, says a University of California professor.

"Marriage and parenthood have been oversold to America's children," Judson T. Landis, sociology professor, told a conference on marriage among the young.

As a result, he said, teenagers often view marriage as a symbol of adulthood or social acceptance and plunge headlong into an unforeseen financial struggle.

Landis said more than two million American girls between 13 and 17 are married every year and teen-age marriages last year produced about 600,000 babies.

Jeanada Nolan, who heads a governor's subcommittee on family life, blamed increased pressures for young marriages. "Take away the threat of the draft and the bomb and we might have less urgency to assume adult roles," she said.

Robert O. Herrmann, assistant professor of business at the University of California, said teen-age husbands earn little more than $2,000 a year on the national average. This is about a third of the average adult wage, he said.

Networks Prepared For Conventions

The man who heads up ABC news, Elmer Lower will tell visitors about ABC's most prized "consultant" at the Republican convention next month.

former President Dwight D. Eisenhower — how the general will appear on camera, in the company of Jim Hagerly and correspondent William H. Lawrence, twice a day, beginning with a full-hour appearance on convention eve and finishing up with a 60-minute post-mortem one week later.

Lower will tell you, too, about the studio that has been set up just down the hall from Mr. Eisenhower's suite on the fifth floor of the St. Francis Hotel. But he won't make any predictions about the Eisenhower appearances—how strong they will be or how they will affect the network's audience rating.

Lower also prefers to take a "we'll-see" attitude regarding his fine anchormen, Howard K. Smith and Edward P. Morgan, though he feels it's the anchor-men who win or lose a convention for a network.

"AFTER THE 1960 conventions," he says—and Lower was NBC News' manager of operations at the time—"Broadcasting magazine asked me what gave NBC the edge in Los Angeles. I told them I felt the anchormen, but that they wouldn't have stayed tuned for long unless Huntley and Brinkley had been backed up by a solid, well-geared team."

"But names count. A program called 'The Ganges River' won't get much of a rating. Call it 'Chet Huntley's Ganges River' and people tune in. It's the marquee system and it works."

Naturally, Lower has many a resplendent word for his own marquee names, Smith and Morgan, along with his floor reporters, John Scally, Al Van and Frank Reynolds, each of whom has an "awfully good pair of shoulders."

THE FLOOR MEN over at CBS, Martin Agronsky, Dan Rather and Roger Mudd, are rather aggressive, too, according to their Election Unit boss, Bill Leonard, who calls Agron-sky, a recent recruit from NBC, "the best floor reporter in TV history."

CBS, says Leonard, will do the best job at the conventions "because we've been building this thing since the middle of '62. You've seen it develop through election night that year, the assassination weekend, the primary coverage. It has a lot to do with Walter Cronkite and the next-in-line people, Eric Sevareid and Harry Reasoner."

"It has to do with an esprit that was strong under Dick Salant and now even firmer under Fred Friendly. We've gotten much, much better."

"And because a convention is an extraordinary maelstrom of humans in one pot, behaving in extraordinary ways, we'll have a kind of human commentary, as opposed solely to political commentary, which is Eric's job. Reasoner is our human commentator, then, and it'll be a key role."

"We've got John Chancellor, Frank McGee, Edwin Newman and Sander Vanocur on the floor," says NBC News General Manager Robert Northshield, "and where will you find four bigger or better names? They're matchless—tough guys who can ask tough questions."

"THE STUFF" that makes us best when we are best is people. We hire reporters. And there's something else, which you might call class. I remember the night four years ago at the Republican convention when Nelson Rockefeller seconded the nomination of Nixon and went through a long string of 'man who's' before he screamed out the name: 'Richard E. Nixon.'

"Then you could hear David Brinkley's voice, ever so quietly, repeating the letter 'M' over and over: 'M. M. M. M.' It wasn't said in a mean, insulting way. It was good news judgment. It was tasteful. It was classy."

"That same night, CBS pulled a brilliant little maneuver when Bill Downs grabbed Nixon, said, 'Here, Walter Cronkite wants to talk to you,' and clamped the old muffs on Nixon's head. Chet Huntley said, 'What you are watching, ladies and gentlemen, is the Republican presidential nominee talking to our competition.'"

"Class." But the truth is, they've all

Tutor Can Help During Summer Months

If your child has "lagged or failed" in his school work, you may decide to be his tutor this summer. Perhaps you could do well at it, but the odds are against your doing so. You may find it difficult to hold yourself to a regular daily period. Even if you did, the eDr. Garry Myers may be many interruptions. Besides, you may not be able to be always calm and patient with your own child no matter how capable you are. Indeed, the more competent you are, the harder for you it may be to be patient.

As a rule, a stranger may prove to be a better tutor, and it may be better for your child to go to the tutor's home than to have the tutor come to your home.

IF YOUR CHILD needs help in subjects at the junior or senior high level, you will have to select a tutor skilled highly in these subjects and adept at teaching them.

To help the grade-school child at reading, spelling or arithmetic, seek a teacher expert in the training the student needs.

But you have to be sure the tutor knows precisely the level at which your child needs to be helped.

You will want the tutor to go back with your child in any subjects he studies this summer till the rock-bottom level is found and then come forward with the child from there.

To illustrate, if your child fell behind in reading in the fourth grade, the tutor may find that the student can read well only from a third grade reader or even as far back as a second- or first-grade level.

Obviously, the child shouldn't have to struggle with trying to grasp fourth-grade reading. However, the tutor should not have the student read from books labeled by grades. That might hurt his feelings. The reading material should not be labeled and no matter how basic it is, it should interest the student.

IF IT IS FIFTH or sixth grade arithmetic, in which your child has fallen behind, you want to be sure the tutor-teacher ascertains whether the child had mastered the basic skills of addition, subtraction, multiplication and division. If he had trouble with any of these, the tutor will have him master these steps first.

Then the tutor will ascertain how your child goes about solving a problem. It might be that he doesn't read the problem carefully to find out what it means. Therefore, the tutor might well devote some time to teaching him to read better for meaning.

The best tutor is one who can win the cooperation of your child, helping him enjoy success at what he is trying to learn. If this can really be done, you need not worry much about how it was accomplished.

If I had a child in the grades, who lagged in reading, and knew a friend or neighbor who could help—even one of high school age—I might prevail on this friend or neighbor to tutor my child, especially in reading.

INDEED, I HAVE seen some high school students who proved to be highly successful tutors of elementary school children. The teaching methods these young persons use are relatively unimportant so long as they help the child enjoy success at reading.

In general, this applies to a tutor of any age or degree of professional training or experience.

My bulletins, "Helping Child at Home in Early Steps of Reading," "Home Helps for Poor Readers I & II" and "Celebrate Your Child's Successes," may be secured by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I have been engaged to Burt for so many years I'm ashamed to tell you the number. We were supposed to get married three months ago. I had my dress bought and my hair fixed. Then his horse got sick. I'm still single.

Burt spends every spare minute at the barn. He has broken dozens of dates with me because his horse didn't look right. He'd rather sit around with the vet and worry about the horse than be with me.

I like horses but I like people better. I'm beginning to think Burt is different. He eats, dreams and thinks horses. He even smells like a horse most of the time. Any advice for me?—DISGUSTED.

Dear Disgusted: It appears that you have been left at the post, Dearie. If you are running so poorly before marriage I'd say your chances for getting any attention whatever after marriage are about 100 to 1—against. As for Burt, I suggest he take a saliva test.

Big Spenders

Dear Ann: My girl friend and I are both 16. We have been dating two boys from another high school. They are buddies.

The second time we went out with Phil and Bill (made up names) they discovered they had no money AFTER we had pulled into a gas station and ordered five gallons of gas. My girl friend and I gave them $1.50. We were supposed to get it back but nothing was ever said about it so we let it go.

The next week when we were in a pizza place the boys suddenly discovered they have 14c between them, so my girl friend and I paid for the treats.

Last night on the way to the bowling alley Bill and Phil asked if they could borrow $2 each until next week. We said okay and handed over the money. Since they had never paid back any of the other money we loaned them we really don't expect to see this money again either.

Please tell me if you think we are being too dollar-minded or are these boys taking advantage of us? — TWO HUMAN CASH REGISTERS.

Dear Registers: It is no disgrace to be tapped out but it is darned disgraceful to continue to borrow money and make no effort to repay it. Phil is a pill and so is Bill. The shortage of loot is the least of their deficiencies. They are also short of integrity. Tell them to get lost.

Weeping Widow

Dear Ann: I've enjoyed your column for many years and now I want to tell you my story as partial repayment for the enjoyment you have given me.

Often widows and unmarried career girls write and ask where all the eligible men are hiding. Well, I'm one widow who wishes the eligible man she found had stayed in hiding.

Two years ago I was 52, lonely (my husband had died three years before) and I felt remarriage was the answer. I had a lovely home, a new car, some blue chip stocks and a nice little piece of real estate.

The town "catch" phoned me twice a day, took me to dinner four times a week and told me I was the angel of his dreams.

Now, less than 25 months later he has "borrowed" $7,000 from me and is about to lose a business which I financed. The cook I had for 21 years quit because she couldn't stand him. I'm fed up on his corny jokes and his boring relatives.

How I wish I were alone again, watching seven-year-old movies on TV. — NO FOOL LIKE AN OLD FOOL.

Dear No: Many lonely widows who marry a second time find happiness and contentment.

You made a poor selection, Madame, but that has been known to happen the first time around, too.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Put The Squeeze On Waist—And Hold It

Just for fun, try an experiment with a waist-whittling test exercise. Whip out the tape and measure your waistline. Mark down the measurement, together with the date. For two weeks take just one exercise designed to tidy up the waist area.

By the way, Ida Jean Kain in measuring if you pull the tape unbearably tight, progress will seem discouragingly slow. You couldn't wear your belt cinched in to that notch. Draw the tape comfortably snug, then ease it out a half inch. There, that's better.

THE WAIST is the line of least resistance to fat padding, as well as the critical test of dress size. When the squeeze is on, we might wish dress manufacturers would allow a mite more leeway at the beltline. Hold it! We wouldn't really want more latitude through the waist, for thickening through the middle is undeniably aging. A gentle twist at the waist is definitely waist slimming. To get fast returns, hold the contraction. Isometric contraction is termed a no-movement exercise. The technique is to contract a muscle, or a group of muscles, and hold the contraction for a slow count of ten. The actual holding time is six seconds. One maximum contraction, held for a six-second period, is all the toning progress you can make in that one day. Scientific experiments have proved this to be true.

Today's exercise is a gentle twist, centered smack at the waist. If your back is not normally strong, this twist, even though gentle, may be taboo for you. The equipment needed is a wand or broom handle long enough for arms to be fully extended to each side. (If you cannot twist, hold wand overhead, stretch up, bend sideways, and hold contraction.)

POSITION: Stand straight, with feet about three feet apart. Hold the wand behind the shoulders and extend arms over and straight out along the wand. Action: Twist slowly at the waistline, rotating the trunk. Twist as far as comfortable — and don't strain. At the height of the twist, hold the muscle contraction to a slow count of ten. Come back to center, twist gently to the other side, and again H-o-l-d. Perform this exercise for two weeks. Note, the count for the holding action is done at the end of the exercise action. . . so as to hold the muscle contraction.

At the end of the first week, re-measure. If you're a half-inch slimmer through the waist, you'll know you have hit upon the secret of effortless streamlining.

At the end of the two-week period, we'll add a side-bend for those who are sufficiently supple.

GOP Fetes Dalrymple At Picnic In Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — Allen Dalrymple of Wellsville, nominee for 18th District Congressman, was honored at a picnic held Wednesday at City Park by the Women's Republican Club and the Men's Republican Club.

About 150 attended the event at which Sheriff Russell VanFossan introduced Dalrymple, who criticized Democrat Rep. Wayne Hays for lack of providing benefits to the district although he said the incumbent has seniority advantages.

Young Driver Gets $25 Fine

William Cornell, 20, of Walnut St. was fined $25 and costs today in Municipal Court on a reckless driving charge filed by a woman motorist as an aftermath of an incident involving two cars Tuesday night at W. 3rd and Monroe Sts. on the east end of the Freeway.

The charges were filed by Roxana McVey, 639 1/2 St. Clair Ave., who alleged that Cornell's car nearly collided with the rear of her auto, causing her to swerve to the curb. Cornell pleaded not guilty, but was convicted by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff after a hearing.

Mrs. McVey testified she was slowing for the traffic light at the intersection when she saw Cornell's auto approaching from the rear at a high rate of speed. The brakes were squealing and the car was weaving, she said. The woman said she swerved to the curb, but there was no collision between the two cars. Cornell told the court the woman motorist pulled in front of him and he was seeking to avoid a collision.

"Somehow or other I can't believe your story," the judge commented, adding that the record shows Cornell has been in court on three prior occasions. After imposing the fine, the judge indicated he would have suspended Cornell's operator's permit except for the fact it might have prevented him from getting to his job at Chester.

Meanwhile, John Stanish of Nemaquin, Pa., forfeited a $32.50 bond on a charge he crashed a traffic signal at W. 8th and Lisbon Sts. at 4:10 this morning. Richard Lee Waite, 129 Sanford Ave., was fined $10 and costs on a charge of speeding 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool-Wellsville "super-road." He was cited by the State Highway Patrol Saturday at 10:15 p. m.

2 Due At Grange Event

LISBON — Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Morlan of Leetonia R. D. 1, county deputy master and juvenile deputy, respectively, will attend the state Juvenile Grange ritualistic contest Saturday at 1 p. m. at Coshocot. No county juvenile members are on the program this year, Mrs. Morlan said.

Citation Given Truck Driver After Mishap

A truck driver was cited after a collision between his vehicle and an auto Wednesday afternoon on Avondale St. 50 feet south of St. Clair Ave., police reported.

The mishap involved a 1950 model truck operated by Lawrence L. Bennington, 30, of 1048 St. Clair Ave. and a 1962 sedan driven by John Beadle, 30, of 710 Morton St.

Bennington, operating a truck owned by the Riggs Co. of Dresden Ave., failed to observe Beadle's car proceeding south and pulled from the curb into the side of the auto, police said.

The mishap was timed at 3:23. There were scratches on the right front of the truck and the left rear quarter panel of the auto was damaged.

Bennington was cited on a charge of failure to yield the right-of-way.

The trucker was fined $10 and costs on the charge today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, who was given an explanation of the mishap by a patrolman Paul Blevis, the investigating officer.

Bennington told the judge he looked in his rear view mirror before pulling from the curb, but did not see Beadle's auto. He pleaded "no contest."

Meanwhile, Mrs. Eunice Vandyne of LaCroft told police Wednesday both left doors of her 1962 four-door sedan were damaged by a hit-skip vehicle while parked on Baum St. between 9:15 a. m. and 9 p. m. Tuesday.

Newell Man, 23, Hurt In St. Clair Ext. Crash

A 23-year-old Newell driver suffered a laceration of the lip in a two-car collision on St. Clair Ave. Ext. Wednesday night.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said a car operated by Glenn Sprowls, 17, of Ashland, Pl. pulled onto St. Clair Ave. Ext. from Ashland Pl. in front of a southbound auto driven by Joseph Wells III, 23, of 601 Jefferson St., Newell.

Wells was treated by a physician for a cut lip. The mishap occurred at 10:45, and still is under investigation, the patrol said.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Crane —

Dear Heloise: Here's my helpful hint which applies to washable nurses' caps!

After the caps have been washed and dried, submerge them in a heavy starch solution sufficient to cover them. Then lay them out on a smooth, flat surface, such as an aluminum or stainless steel cookie sheet, and smooth out perfectly with your fingers. Then expose the caps to the sun and when dry, "peel off." No ironing is necessary, and the caps stand up perfectly, and the sun bleaches them.

The results are miraculous!
CHARLOTTE GROSS, R.N.

Ever tried using a window pane? It's fantastic. But be sure the window is clean. If the window is on the sunny side of the house, the sun will also bleach the cap.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Here's a bit of sound philosophy for your weight-conscious friends.

Don't buy it and you won't have to eat it.

How about that:
MRS. HENRY GOLDBACK.

DEAR HELOISE: For those who braid or hook rugs, here's a hint for house cleaning time: While sorting woolen garments, some of which are too good for the rag bag, I wash them, cut them into strips, and fold.

I save plastic bags and put different colors of wool strips in each one. Thus, color and amount is visible.

If the bags are put away with moth balls for winter sewing, the moths won't get to them.

GRANDMOTHER.

DEAR HELOISE: For mothers of two and three—

The Picturephone Centers are in Grand Central Terminal, a Chicago office building and the National Geographic Society building in Washington.

Man In Burglary Case Requests Probation

Harsha Advises Scranton Against Dewey Support

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. William H. Harsha, R-Ohio, says any support Gov. William Scranton of Pennsylvania hopes to gain in Ohio for his drive for the presidential nomination will be threatened if he enlists the aid of former New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

Harsha, congressman from Portsmouth, made public Wednesday a telegram he sent to Scranton which said:

"It is with grave concern that I read your announcement enlisting the aid of the Hon. Thomas E. Dewey of New York in your campaign efforts to halt Sen. (Barry) Goldwater's nomination.

"Mr. Dewey, a renowned hatchet man for the eastern Republicans, was primarily responsible in preventing Ohio's great senator, Robert Taft, from obtaining the presidential nomination several years ago and we in Ohio are not unmindful of this questionable contribution to Republican history.

"Any support you hope to gain in Ohio will undoubtedly be greatly threatened by this ill-advised move on your part."

Harsha's reference to the late Sen. Taft concerned the 1952 GOP convention when Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower beat Taft for the nomination with Dewey's support.

Milk Price Cut Proposed For Pittsburgh Area

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — The Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission proposed Wednesday a one and one-third cent reduction in the average price of half-gallon containers of milk in the 13-county Pittsburgh marketing area.

The current 51-cent per half-gallon price for home-delivered milk would continue under the tentative order, effective July 1, but the seasonal one-cent a quart hike Aug. 1 would be eliminated.

J. Lin Huber, commission chairman, estimated that the new order would save Pittsburgh area consumers $730,000 a year.

"We would be less than honest if we did not admit that the previous farm price was unrealistic and far too high, driving many Pennsylvania dealers out of the state for their milk," Huber added.

On Losing Side

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, voted on the losing side as the Senate Wednesday defeated, 42-38, an amendment by Sens. J. William Fulbright, D - Ark., and Wayne Morse, D - Ore., which would have cut $267.5 million from a $5.25 billion space authorization bill.

The bid of Thomas Nicholson was accepted to repair the fire wall on the north side of David Anderson high school for $1,400. John Hollinger asked $1,850. Nicholson will also be requested to check the wall between the wood shop and the old vo-ag room. The fire wall is causing roof damage and water leakage.

Payment of $82.50 to the Mahoning Painting Co. was approved for materials and labor for repair to the high school roof damaged by objects thrown to the roof.

Purchase of a used 20-cubic foot freezer for $125 from Sam Campanelli was authorized, plus a $15 moving fee to Raymond Reese.

Several shades at Lincoln School need replacing and Supt. Oliver Payne was ordered to obtain costs before purchase.

The board discussed the summer program and Supt. Payne reported the gymnasium boiler is being welded instead of replacing it.

In summer maintenance program, Plummer Diehl reported on an inspection for termites at the high school. He had a standing contract. Heim Sheet Metal was reported studying plans to vent the finishing room and shop.

Maintenance of the Memorial Stadium appears to be adequate, painting of the Lincoln building is progressing, the Boosters Club and board hope to replace two lights poles at the stadium before football season, the board said the Hartford Insurance Co. inspector reported boilers in good condition.

Next meeting is July 14 at 7:30 p. m. when the budget will be submitted for approval and a levy will be authorized for a vote on the November ballot.

Ex-Wellsville Pastor Honored

A former Wellsville resident, the Rev. Earl C. Morgan, a retired minister of the United Presbyterian Church, was honored Sunday by the Westminster church of Akron on the 50th anniversary of his ordination.

While in Wellsville High School and following his graduation in 1909, he worked as a printer and reporter for the East Liverpool Morning Tribune to earn money towards his higher education. Newspaper work was his only means of support as he worked his way through Franklin College, now merged with Muskingum College, McCormick Theological Seminary in Chicago, Western Theological Seminary in Pittsburgh and the University of Pittsburgh.

For six years, until 1953, he was pastor of the North Springfield Presbyterian Church, one of six churches he served. In his retirement, he does some supply preaching and handles employee relations for Carter-Jones Co. and printing for Eckard-Baldwin Co.

Miss Isa Anderson of Broadway, Wellsville, a cousin, attended the service honoring Dr. Morgan and remained for a visit with the family until Tuesday.

Smith Delivers Again, Puts LA's String To 8; Birds Halt Yankees

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer
Willie Smith is in a rut, and the Los Angeles Angels hope it gets even deeper.

Smith, a refugee from the pitcher's mound, delivered the game-winning hit for the third consecutive night as the Angels whipped Washington 9-5 Wednesday.

The newly converted outfielder drove in five runs with a homer and a triple, lifting Los Angeles to its eighth straight victory, longest streak in the majors this season and longest in the team's 3½-year history.

The home run, his third, came in the seventh inning after Vic Power singled and Jim Fregosi walked and wiped out a 5-3 deficit. He added a triple in the eighth, again sending in Power and Fregosi.

The night before, the 25-year-old Smith socked a two-run homer for a 2-0 Angels' victory and Monday night he singled home the deciding run.

The Angels' spurt has left them in eighth place in the American League but has placed them only two games away from fifth. A victory over Kansas City tonight would vault them into a tie for sixth.

Smith's latest performance was an abbreviated one — he didn't enter the game until the fifth inning. Still he raised his batting average 21 points to .340 and increased his RBI total to 15 in 50 times at bat.

Despite his monotonous onslaught, Smith proved he is fallible. When he appeared as a pinch hitter in the fifth, he reached first base only because of an error.

And after lashing the triple, he was picked off third by catcher Mike Brumley as Bob Duliba struck out.

In other AL games, Baltimore defeated New York 7-4, Chicago trounced Boston 8-1, Detroit battered Kansas City 9-5 and Minnesota nipped Cleveland 3-2 after losing 12-3.

Smith wasn't the only big hitter for the Angels. Power hit safely four times and Jim Fregosi and Bob Perry three each. Dick Phillips had three hits for the Senators. Reliever Bob Lee picked up his fourth victory, all against Washington.

A three-base throwing error by relief pitcher Stan Williams in the eighth inning led to the Yankees' downfall. The error came on a bunt by Willie Kirkland with two men on, none out and the score tied 4-4.

Williams, trying for a force at third, flipped the ball into left field, permitting Bob Saverine and Jerry Adair to score. Kirkland raced to third from where he scored on Dick Hall's bunt.

Gary Peters hurled a five-hitter for his eighth victory against three defeats for Chicago. Ron Hansen's two-run inside-the-park homer in the four-run first triggered the triumph. Boston rookie Tony Conigliaro fell into the left-field stands trying to catch Hansen's drive.

Conigliaro was unconscious for a while but recovered before going to the hospital where preliminary X rays revealed bruises of the left ankle, knee cap and wrist.

The Tigers outslugged the Athletics on the hitting of Gates Brown and Dick McAuliffe. Brown hit two homers for three runs batted in while McAuliffe drove in three with two singles and a homer. Rocky Colavito sparked a five-run Kansas City fourth inning with a three-run homer.

Max Alvis led the Indians' first-game attack, hitting two homers, one a grand slam in the six-run third. Al Smith drove in three runs, two on a homer in the fifth. Dick Donovan scattered eight hits in going the distance.

Dick Stigman gave up six hits and struck out 12 in the Twins' triumph. Sam McDowell lost his first game after winning three. Minnesota scored the deciding run in the fifth when Rich Rollins doubled, went to third on a sacrifice bunt and scored on Harmon Killebrew's sacrifice fly. Bob Chance hit a two-run homer for Cleveland in the fourth.

Alston Will Take Base Hits Rather Than Star Votes

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Walter Alston didn't appreciate the beating his Los Angeles Dodgers took in the National League All-Star poll the other day but it's unlikely he'll demand a recount.

Alston will take base hits over ballots any day and the Dodgers have been on a hit rampage since their shutout in the NL player vote for the 1964 Classic.

The Dodgers, punchless throughout the early part of the season, exploded for the second time in three days Wednesday, burying Milwaukee 15-4 behind a 19-hit barrage good for 32 total bases.

The offensive binge was the biggest thus far for the world champions, topping their 15-hit output in Monday's 10-9 victory over the Braves.

The contributions of Maury Wills and John Roseboro to Wednesday's rout undoubtedly soothed Alston's feelings further. The manager was particularly miffed when neither was named to the first or second All-Star teams.

Wills stroked four singles and drew a walk in five times at bat, scored three runs, drove in one and stole his 24th and 25th bases. Roseboro hit a home run, his second of the season.

Elsewhere in the NL, Philadelphia outlasted Chicago 9-8, San Francisco shaded Cincinnati 2-1, Houston trimmed St. Louis 7-5 and Pittsburgh topped New York 3-1.

The Dodgers' assault on five Milwaukee pitchers helped Don Drysdale breeze to his 10th victory. The big right-hander chipped in with a single and double and drove in a run.

The victory left Los Angeles one victory short of the .500 mark and 2½ games behind fourth-place Cincinnati.

It also bolstered Alston's case for adding several Dodgers to the All-Star squad he'll manage against the American League on July 7.

John Hernstein's seventh-inning home run proved decisive for the league-leading Phillies, who blew an early 5-1 lead. Richie Allen hit a three-run homer for the Phils, his 14th of the year, and Ernie Banks poked his eighth for the Cubs, tying Joe DiMaggio for 13th position on the all-time circuit list.

Orlando Cepeda's two-run homer backed the 14-strikeout, seven-hit pitching of Ron Herbel in the Giants' victory over the Reds. Herbel's strikeout total was a single-game high in the NL this season.

Houston scored six runs in the seventh, overcoming a 3-1 deficit and chasing St. Louis starter Ray Sadecki. Singles by Mike White, Joe Gaines and Nellie Fox delivered three runs. Jerry Grote singled in two more and the sixth scored on reliever Mike Cuellar's throwing error. White paced the Colts' attack with four hits.

Bob Friend set down the Mets for the 12th straight time in his career but needed relief help from Al McBean after Joe Christopher homered in the ninth. Willie Stargell drove in two Pirate runs and Dick Schofield knocked in the third.

Dick Tiger To Check On Title Bout Chances

NEW YORK (AP)—Nigeria's Dick Tiger, the former middleweight champion, arrived unexpectedly Wednesday to check on his chances of getting a return title bout with Joey Giardello.

Giardello dethroned Tiger on a 15-round decision in Atlantic City, N.J., last Dec. 7. The new champion promised to give Tiger the first crack at the title.

Chuck Has Close Call At Wimbledon

McKinley Forced To Rally In Battle With Brazilian

By JOHN GALE
Associated Press Writer

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Wimbledon tennis championships — packed so far with hairbreadth escapes — are also living up to their colorful reputation as an arena for giant killers.

With only three days play complete, three of the men's seeds already have been vanquished.

In addition, the personal ambitions of several much fancied players including the reigning champion Chuck McKinley from San Antonio, Tex., have been rudely threatened by brash and young up-and-comers on the international tennis circuit.

The perils of Pauline have nothing on Wimbledon these days. Any ranking player can expect trouble in almost any round.

McKinley's close shave came at the height of battle with Tomas Koch, the 19-year-old Brazilian prospect who is rated in some quarters as a top player of the future.

At two sets all with Koch leading 1-0 and 40-30 against service in the fifth, the champion struggled to survive. He made it — but with not much to spare — 3-6, 6-3, 6-4, 5-7, 6-4.

The record contrasted oddly with McKinley's Wimbledon performance last year when he went through the tournament without dropping a set.

The three seeded players already out are Dennis Ralston, No. 5, from Bakersfield, Calif., Italy's Nicola Pietrangeli, No. 7, and Australia's Martin Mulligan, No. 8.

Pietrangeli and Mulligan both succumbed tamely in straight sets — the Italian losing to Pierre Barthes of France 6-3, 7-6, 4, and the Australian going deep under to his compatriot Bob Hewitt 6-4, 6-2, 6-4. The giants looked pretty fragile.

Even No. 1 seed Roy Emerson of Australia dropped a set against a tooth-and-nail fighter from Yugoslavia, Nicola Pietrangeli. The final score was 6-3, 11-9, 3-6, 6-4.

Realtors Win First Half Title As Central Falls

The Realtors stood by and won the first half championship in the Colt League Wednesday as Riverview handed second place Central Service a 3-2 setback.

The loss by Central gives the Realtors the first half title. Riverview scored all three runs in the first inning while

Hall was the losing pitcher and showed five strikeouts.

The schedule for the second half of the season begins Sunday.

Second place will be at stake tonight when the Dentists meet South Side. A victory by the Dentists would put them ahead of Central Service in the first half standings.

| Dentists | 16 |
| Riverview | 12 |

| South Side | 6 |

Central came up with two in the second but were blanked the rest of the way.

The contest saw Mike Silliman limit Central to four hits while Riverview collected seven including a triple by Schilling and two singles by Mike McVay. Schilling drove in two of his team's three runs.

Harris Hopes To Follow In Palmer, Jack's Steps

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
CLEVELAND (AP) — Arnie Palmer and Jack Nicklaus used the National Amateur Championship as a stepping stone to golfdom's golden glory—and now comes Labron Harris Jr., 1962 king of the play-for-fun group, to make his bid.

The 190-pound, 6-foot-3 Oklahoman, who surrendered his amateur status just two months ago, is making a run at the established stars.

In three tournaments he has finished in the money twice to the tune of $1,306, and he hopes to boost that figure in the $100,000 Cleveland Open, which started today over Highland Park's 6,821-yard, par 71 layout.

The 22-year-old Harris, a mathematics graduate of Oklahoma State University, where his dad has been golf coach since 1941, has a dollar sign in his eye in his realistic approach to the game.

"I like to play golf, and I wouldn't have much chance to play as an amateur," he said.

"The next 10 years would be required for me to set myself up in some sort of business, and I'd have to give all my time to it. But I think I can make a good living at golf. If I can't find out in a hurry."

Noting that Nicklaus and Palmer, both former amateur winners, were currently 1-2 in the money won list, Harris said, "They are great golfers. You can't compare my game to theirs."

Harris did not play in Wednesday's pro-amateur preliminary in which Don Fairfield got a big break and $800.

Fairfield was not among the 50 pros certified by the PGA but was called in off the practice course to replace injured Ed Furgol. Fairfield and three public links partners carved out a best-ball 59 despite a 77 by Don and it stood up for the big prize.

In the individual scoring race, Bill Collins, Harold Kneec and Bobby Nichols picked up $833 for scores of 69.

Hanover's Smith Ties Loop Mark By Fanning 17 Batters

Tom Smith of the Hanover Reds tied the South Side Junior Hot Stove League strikeout record when he whiffed 17 batters Wednesday in his team's 12-2 victory over Frankfort.

Smith only gave up two hits during his brilliant performance. Babe was the losing pitcher. Shippingport protected its first place lead with a 10-2 win over the Hanover Giants. Jeff Wilson hurled a neat two hitter for the league leaders while George McNary was the losing twirler. Ed Shaffer belted a triple and double to lead the winners.

It was Lawrenceville 11 and Hookstown 7 in another Junior Division battle. Lawrenceville collected 11 hits including a double and single by the winning pitcher Jack Mumaw. Hookstown nipped Mumaw for five hits and he fanned eight batters. Seawright and Anderson hit a double and single each for Hookstown. Seawright was the loser.

Named Cage Coach

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — The new head basketball coach at Perry High is Ed Mathie, reserve coach the past three seasons. He succeeds Don Cable, who resigned to become faculty manager of athletics at Jackson High here.

Mrs. Patterson Sets Pace Again In Ladies Golf

Mrs. Robert Patterson again set the pace in Ladies Golf at the East Liverpool Country Club Wednesday with a low gross 48-43-91 total in the 18-hole medal play.

Low net went to Mrs. W. T. Pomeroy Jr. with 109-34-75 while Mrs. J. E. Laughlin took putting with 31.

The nine-hole second division play saw Mrs. Art Doak fire low gross of 56 and Mrs. E. T. Martin low net of 57-21-36.

A three-way tie for putting showed Mrs. Martin, Mrs. J. E. Mountford and Mrs. H. A. Smith tied with 17 each.

East Vs. West Saturday In All-America Grid Tilt

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — If speedy Bob Brown should happen to bump someone a little hard Saturday night, that someone might not bounce up again very quickly.

Brown, a guard at Nebraska, weighed in at 290 pounds Wednesday as he joined his mates on the West team in their daily drill for the fourth annual All-America football game, to be played in War Memorial Stadium.

Brown, a 22-year-old from Cleveland, stands 6-5 and hopes to make the grade with the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League.

Before touring Niagara Falls with his teammates and the East team's players, Brown and the other 56 gridgers here went through their fourth day of workouts.

Midway through the East's practice, Coach Pete Elliott of Illinois took a few seconds to press for more drive.

He noted that, after drilling in 92-degree temperature Tuesday, the players appeared to be lagging in Wednesday's 70 degrees.

Only a few words were needed from Elliott to put life into the East's workout, which was concentrated on punts, punt returns and passing.

The West worked hard on its pass defense and ground game. The kickoff for the nationally televised game by ABC is set for 8:30 p.m., EST. A crowd of 25,000 is expected.

Appalachia Plan

Will Aid 24 Ohio Counties

Editor's Note: It still comes as a surprise to many Ohioans that their rich industrial state is one of the prime targets in the war on poverty and economic depression. Yet, the battleground will cover one-fourth of the state, involve its leaders, affect its people. What is the Appalachian plan? Its method? Its men? This is the first of a three-part series on Ohio's Appalachia.

APPALACHIA
(First of three parts)
By JOHN F. WHEELER
Associated Press Writer

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Something big is about to happen to this beautiful but economically sick part of Ohio. No one knows exactly what.

But 24 counties in and around the storied Ohio valley are waiting—as they have for two decades—for something to happen.

The tumbled countryside is deceiving. Its disappointments are grown over, covered with a beautiful green—the color of cash. In a way, it is an omen of the millions of dollars the federal and state governments plan to shoot into the veins of Ohio's Appalachia.

What is Appalachia?
An oldtimer in Athens says: "Never heard of it. But I can remember 20 years ago when this town ran four labor trains a day to the mines. Yes, I guess it would be a good idea. We need something."

There are two programs for Ohio's Appalachia—the federal 10-state plan and Ohio's. They are separate but dependent.

Highways are the cornerstone of the Ohio plan. The idea is to bring easy transportation and communication into the hills. Theoretically, industry, tourism and prosperity will follow.

Ohio is counting heavily on its proposed Appalachian Way—a superhighway from near Cincinnati to Bridgeport in Belmont County. But, so far, there is no money to build it and financing prospects are murky.

Both the federal government and Ohio are more or less agreed the plans will cover these 24 counties: Adams, Athens, Belmont, Brown, Clermont, Gallia, Guernsey, Harrison, Highland, Hocking, Jackson, Jefferson, Lawrence, Meigs, Monroe, Morgan, Muskingum, Noble, Perry, Pike, Ross, Scioto, Vinton and Washington.

The federal government plans to give big money for highways, airports, flood control, research, etc. Gov. James A. Rhodes says: "We will supplement the Appalachia program."

At Ohio University, unofficial rallying point for both federal and state plans, an aide says he thinks Ohio will end up patching the holes in the poverty pocket which the federal government misses. The federal government, he adds, seems likely to bear the burden of the cost—even on the matching plan system.

How much will be spent in Ohio?

President Johnson has asked Congress for $227.3 million for the 10 states in Appalachia for the first year. Ohio, presumably would get at least one tenth of that. The state is also scheduled to get $90 million in highway money over a five-year period. It may get more if the Appalachian Way, not in federal plans at the moment, is included.

Then there is Ohio's share of $962.5 million, if Congress approves, for President Johnson's war on poverty. Add Ohio money—state and private—and what is the total?

Police Post Standards Set At Salineville

SALINEVILLE — Requirements for appointment as village police chief were prepared by Council's safety committee and Mayor Stanley Fitch at a meeting Wednesday night.

Applications will be received until July 9 for the post from which Chief Roy Lewis has resigned to accept an industrial job at Minerva. He is continuing to serve as chief until a replacement is obtained.

Applicants must be between 21 and 60, reside at the Village Hall apartment to receive phone and radio calls, have a driver license, be of good moral character, obtain three references and pass a physical examination.

The post pays $245 a month, with utilities and living quarters provided, which is the equivalent of $320 a month, Mayor Fitch said.

Applications are to be in the mayor's office by noon July 9. The safety committee will meet that day to screen applications, and select three for interviews.

Council will meet July 13 to act on appointing a chief from the three selected, the mayor said.

Ruling Curbs City Firemen In River Calls

The fact that East Liverpool firemen cannot venture far into the Ohio River on rescue work without giving up their right to injury and death benefits under state law was brought to light Wednesday afternoon when a woman's body was discovered floating in the stream near the Newell Bridge.

Firemen said yesterday—and city officials later backed them up—that members of the department would not be covered by the Ohio firemen's pension law if they took a boat into the river beyond the low water mark on the Ohio shore, which is both the municipal corporate limits and the boundary between Ohio and West Virginia.

Exactly where the low water mark is located is another question that remains to be settled definitely, although Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper said he has seen maps that show it runs approximately at the pier of the Chester Bridge nearest the Ohio side. The low water mark is the point established prior to the construction of the first locks and dams around the turn of the century, he explained.

Safety Service Director Robert E. Vodrey, in response to a query, said the question about the firemen's protection for injury and death first was raised by the firemen themselves about two months ago. As a result, he said, he called a conference of the heads of the department in his office with the solicitor to hear an explanation of the law.

Cooper said the situation is that the firemen or their dependents would not be covered in the event of injury or death of a fireman if he ventured into the river beyond the low water mark. The same situation would prevail if firemen were sent outside the city to fight a blaze in a community that had no reciprocal agreement with the city, he explained.

In response to other queries, the solicitor and the director said the city has made no real investigation of the possibility of buying private liability insurance coverage to protect the firemen if they are dispatched on a run to the river.

Canton Debaters Sole Ohio Team To Survive

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Canton Lehman's two-man debate team is the sole Ohio team to survive the first round in the National Speech Tournament being held at the University of Akron this week. The Canton contingent includes Joe Koclubes and Fred Appelbaum.

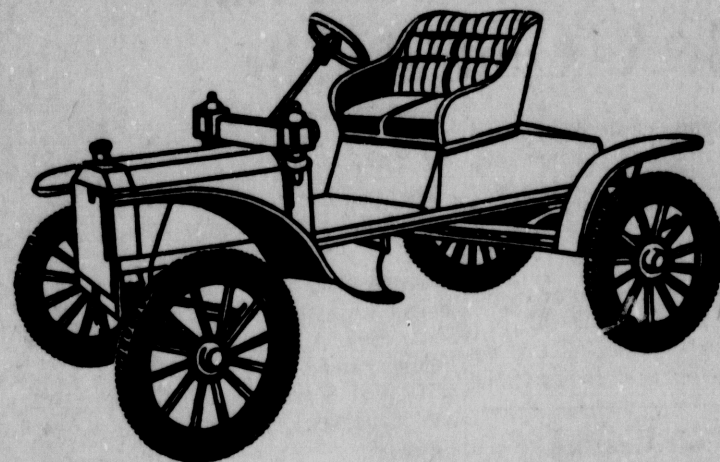

Altogether 24 teams are left in the competition, sponsored by the National Forensics League. The tournament is limited to high schools. Twelve Ohio schools were among the 64 entered when the tournament began Wednesday. The finals are Friday, after nine more rounds.

Community College Favored In Beaver Panel Discussion

A panel comprised of educational and community leaders, at a public discussion on "Community Colleges" Wednesday night at Western Beaver High School in Industry, favored establishment of a community college for Beaver County, rather than a branch of Penn State University, which has been proposed.

The panel members pointed out that the type of courses that could be obtained from such a branch could be received from Geneva College, while the need is for classes of a more technical nature.

The advantages of this type of instruction to local industry was discussed. The panelists explained the state law governing community colleges, how they are financed, what part county governments play, the role of the County Board of Education, the need for additional education and training and industry's position upon community colleges.

Dr. Robert Spooner, co-ordinator of the scientific and research advisory group of the Regional Industrial Development Corp., was moderator.

Panelists were J. W. Nippert, United Steelworkers District 20 representative; Robert Zapsic, executive director of the Beaver County Planning Commission and Beaver County Industrial Development Agency; Dr. William H. Russell, dean of Geneva College; Dr. Milton J. Eger of Aliquippa, regional director of District 11 of the Pennsylvania School Board Association, and Raymond F. Crawford, personnel director of the Mackintosh-Hemphill Division of the E. W. Bliss Co. of Pittsburgh and Midland.

The discussion, sponsored by the Western Beaver County Area Development Committee, attracted about 30.

Expert Links Job Stress To Heart Disease

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A New York heart specialist, reporting on a survey of 12,000 professional persons, said today that job stress is closely linked to coronary heart disease—but smoking may not be.

The survey covered 14 occupational groups with "obvious differences" in job tensions, said Dr. Henry I. Russek, consultant in cardiovascular disease, U.S. Public Health Service hospital, Staten Island.

Dr. Russek listed those surveyed in order of decreasing stress: General medical practitioners, anesthesiologists, pathologists, dermatologists, general dental practitioners, oral surgeons, orthodontists and periodontists, general law practitioners, trial lawyers, lawyers in various specialties and patent lawyers.

In addition, he said, security analysts and security traders on the New York Stock Exchange were compared.

Persons who said they never had smoked showed significantly higher coronary heart disease rates than those who stopped smoking before their attack or before the time of the questionnaire if there was no attack, Dr. Russek reported at the annual convention of the American Medical Association.

"These findings cast doubt upon the alleged role of smoking in the genesis of coronary heart disease," he said.

Dr. Russek's report followed a statement by the AMA's House of Delegates saying that the AMA recognizes "a significant relationship between cigarette smoking and the incidence of lung cancer and certain other diseases, and that cigarette smoking is a serious health hazard." But it didn't mention heart disease specifically.

Democrats Plan July Fund Drive

A membership drive will be launched by the finance committee of Columbiana County Democrats July 1, Don R. Gosney, county party chairman, announced today.

The drive will end July 31, with each precinct committee-member in the county soliciting memberships at $1 or more, Gosney said.

Atty. Paul Tobin of East Liverpool is chairman of the finance committee. Atty. Guy Mauro of Salem is treasurer.

Plans have been made for a booth at the County Fair and for other party functions later in the summer, Gosney added.

Jack Waugaman New South Side Post Head

Jack Waugaman of Hookstown was named commander of South Side American Legion Post 952 at Hookstown in an election held at the regular meeting Wednesday evening. He will succeed Mike Evans.

Lyle Keffer of Georgetown was named first vice commander and Joseph Krizan of Hookstown second vice commander.

Charles Custer of Imperial will be chaplain and John Travers of Aliquippa, sergeant-at-arms. New officers will assume their duties in August.

Junior Editors Quiz on AMERICAN HISTORY

QUESTION: Why was America named after Vespucci rather than Columbus?

ANSWER: Amerigo Vespucci was born in Florence, Italy. "Amerigo" was his family name. He moved to Spain and in 1491 began outfitting ships. It was during this time he met Christopher Columbus. Columbus had not realized that he had discovered a new continent - he thought he had found Japan and the East Indies. When Vespucci sailed with a Spanish expedition, as a pilot, and the ship touched the mainland of South America, he also believed this coast was part of the fabulous East, which all explorers were trying to find. By sailing south, Vespucci thought it possible to enter the Indian Ocean. Back home, Amerigo failed to interest the Spaniards in a new expedition, but finally sailed again with the backing of the Portuguese. Starting in May, 1501, he reached the Brazilian coast and sailed south. Here something very important happened: he realized at last that this was not the east, but a whole new continent. Home again, he was able to convince others of this. In 1507 a German map maker suggested the new world be called America because Amerigo had been the first to realize it really was a new world. At first the name meant South America, but was later given to North America as well.

FOR YOU TO DO: But for that map maker, our nation might have been called Columbia. There is a nation called Columbia, in South America. Find out about its history.

Senate's Finance Committee Votes Excise Tax Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Democratic leaders planned to day to accept a Finance Committee decision to cut in half the revenue from federal excise taxes on jewelry, furs, cosmetics and luggage including handbags.

Mansfield said this is "the best solution to a difficult problem" although he pointed out the final answer would have to be worked out in a Senate-House conference.

cent retail excises in the four categories be retained. Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen proposed their repeal Wednesday in the Finance Committee. Democrats in the group then came up with a substitute after a nose count convinced them Dirksen's amendment probably would be adopted.
